

Central Pennsylvania Chapter – CSI
42nd Annual Exhibitor’s Show Seminar Series
Radisson Hotel – Camp Hill, Pa.
March 15, 2017

DON'T HAVE THE TIME? WE HAVE 1-HR AIA ACCREDITED SEMINARS:

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM: YKK AP

Ensuring compliance of fenestration with Today's Energy Codes and Green Standards

*Time: 1 Hour, Presenter: David Warden Enerfacade Brand manager YKKAP America Cost: FREE
Learning Units: 1.0 Including 1 credit of HSW*

Course Description: Course covers the latest developments in the ICC codes and ASHRAE standards, select fenestration systems that meet these new requirements and whole building energy goals. Reviews whole fenestration system performance and explains compliance for the commercial market such as AAMA507 and NFRC CMA Modeling program.

This program provides one AIA/CES Learning Unit.

2:30 PM – 3:30 PM: Concrete Polishing - Soup to Nuts

Concrete Polishing – Soup to Nuts

Time: 1 hour, Presenter: Ed Finnegan, RetroPlate manufacturer’s representative Credits: 1, HSW: 1, GBCI Credits: Yes

Program Overview:

1- Understand concrete and how its finish influences the outcome of polished concrete. 2- Understand the benefits and limitations of polished concrete. 3- Recognize how specifications influence the outcome of polished concrete and learn to specify properly. 3- Evaluate environments and industries conducive to polished concrete from new floors to rehab projects. 4 - Identify sustainable attributes of polished concrete. 5 – How does polished concrete contribute to earning LEED certification. 6- Understand joint filling, crack filling, patching, and coloring options.

Learning Objectives:

Powerpoint presentation discussing polished concrete, proper specification, and means and methods.

This program provides one AIA/CES Learning Unit

SEMINARS ARE FREE

ADVANCED REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED

