

A Complete Building Solution

Intertek

Environmental Consulting & Geotechnical Services

Environmental consulting, geotechnical, and property condition assessment to assure optimal site selection and construction risk mitigation.

Buildings Systems Consulting

Industry professionals provide a variety of acoustic, fire, AV, roofing system and enclosure consulting services to ensure proper design and installation of a building's critical systems.

Building Product & Construction Materials Testing

Providing testing for virtually all type of building products, materials, and systems for safety, retail, and performance purposes.

Decommissioning & Property Transfer

Supporting the management and maintenance of a building, to control liabilities and protect the investment.

Mock-Up & Field Testing

On-site (air infiltration, water leakage, & structural performance for fenestration) or in lab validation of a curtain wall's design, workmanship, & material selection to ensure its performance.

Product Certification & Code Evaluation

The ETL and Warnock Hersey Marks show a product or system's conformance to code and ensures the on-going verification of compliance.

Building Enclosure Commissioning

Design and construction professionals provide solutions to reduce the potential for premature building failure, increase a building's energy efficiency, and expected life cycle.

Due Diligence Services

Providing on-site services to ensure what is expected is what is being received.

Industrial Hygiene Services

Assessing the quality of a variety sources (air, asbestos, lead, mold) to minimize the risk of factors adverse to human health.

Field Labeling

Providing on-site services of opening systems that need to be re-labeled or making recommendations for upgrades materials.

