ENTRY FEE

There is no entry fee for nominations to the Architectural Excellence Special Awards.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE

The AIA Pennsylvania Board of Directors has authorized the AIA Pennsylvania Committee on Design (COD) to convene an annual Special Awards Nomination Committee. The Committee on Design Chair invites a past Special Award recipient to serve as the Special Awards Nomination Committee Chair. The Committee on Design Chair also assists the Special Awards Nomination Committee Chair with recruitment of the Nomination Committee members to ensure perspectives from a diverse representation of the membership with local awareness of those making an impact on the profession.

It is the responsibility of the Special Awards Nomination Committee to:

1. Receive and review all nominations from eligible members for all open nomination awards categories.
2. Make additional nominations for each of the open nomination award categories.
3. Impartially evaluate, select, and forward a final special award slate of recommendations to the AIA Pennsylvania Board of Directors for approval.

The Special Awards Nomination Committee reserves the right to not put forth a Special Award recommendation in any category should the nominations presented not meet the high standard set by AIA Pennsylvania Board of Directors. Awards are granted at the discretion of the AIA Pennsylvania Board of Directors.

SPECIAL CITATION

This is an award that can be given to any AIA Pennsylvania member who has made outstanding contributions to their community and profession in a manner that has advanced the values of the Architectural profession. The award can be given periodically at the discretion of the AIA Pennsylvania Board of Directors and or by the AIA Pennsylvania Special Awards Nomination Committee.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD

The President's Award is presented at the discretion of the President of the Board of Directors, in recognition of special contributions and/or particular support of the profession, the business of architecture or the built environment, in Pennsylvania. The award is open to anyone, including members, non-members, architects, and others.

STUDENT AWARDS

The Student Award recognizes the exceptional scholastic achievement and future promise of a student graduating at the end of the current academic year. One student will be chosen by the faculty of each of Pennsylvania's accredited architectural schools to be honored. The student should have proven to be proficient in both academics and design, and ready to take on the challenges and responsibilities of the work environment in an architecture firm. The administration and faculty of each of the seven Pennsylvania NAAB accredited architecture programs select award recipients.
